Home Forums Welcome to the forums at Pill Identification If you have an imprint, we can tell you the strength. What is a xanax pie? I've never heard that term in reference to any form of alprazolam. The difference is that usually yellow xanax is 1mg ER and xanax white bars that are scored into 4 sections are 2mg IR xanax, the same goes for the pies which I assume you are talking about mylans 2mg xanax IR 4 scored but round. If you go to the common imprints section and go to alprazolam/xanax you can look up all the different imprints and mg, IR, ER, etc.....Google Images

Generic yellow xanax bars - Anxiety - MedHelpThis patient support community is for discussions relating to generalized anxiety, anxiety and eating, anxiety and sleeping, mood swings, and phobias.. I didn't need it again until now... and it's white. I believe the white one is the generic brand (alprazolam...or something like that...haven't got the spelling!). If you're really concerned about the effectiveness, I'd check back with your doctor. It may put your mind at ease.

It is a Federal mandate that ALL generic drugs must be passed by the FDA to be constituted EXACTLY as the name brand. (If you are buying your Xanax from Mexico, I'd be concerned!) This includes their potency. For those of you who feel the generics are not as effective, you have been misinformed or are just imagining a difference. Many drug companies now produce Xanax in the generic form which is called Alprazolam. When I switched pharmacies a while ago, the color AND shape of my Alprazolam was different. A simple consult with the pharmacist assured me it was exactly the same. info on xanax bars
